

Good morning church family! I pray that everyone has had a blessed week and has been rejoicing over what God is doing here at Cornerstone. Last week was such a blessing getting to watch Tyler make public, his profession of faith. I want to ask each person that is a part of Cornerstone to consider in what area of ministry here at the church, you can serve. There is work for all of us to do, and we need each person to use the talents and abilities that God has given you for his service. Call or text me this week and let's see how we can get you plugged into one of our ministries.

Bro. Jamie
