

Good morning and I hope that everyone had a wonderful Thanksgiving week. I also pray that we all have truly reflected on all that we have to be thankful for. This is the time of year when often times we look back and see things we wished we had done differently and even start to make those New Years resolutions. As your pastor, I challenge each person in the church to make a commitment this coming year that you will become involved in the ministries of this church. However, I want to take it a step further and ask each of you to write down a ministry that you are passionate about and will commit to becoming involved in. It doesn't have to be something new; maybe something we already do, but you are going to become a part of it. It could be singing in the choir, helping in the nursery, driving the bus or a number of things. When you write those down, bring them to me, and let's pray about how God can use you in those areas.

Bro. Jamie
